October 2017

O hushed October morning mild,
Thy leaves have ripened to the fall;
Tomorrow's wind, if it be wild,
Should waste them all.
The crows above the forest call;
Tomorrow they may form and go.
O hushed October morning mild,
Begin the hours of this day slow.
Make the day seem to us less brief.
Hearts not averse to being beguiled,
Beguile us in the way you know.
Release one leaf at break of day;
At noon release another leaf;
One from our trees, one far away.
Retard the sun with gentle mist;
Enchant the land with amethyst.
Slow, slow!
For the grapes' sake, if they were all,
Whose leaves already are burnt with frost,
Whose clustered fruit must else be lost—
For the grapes' sake along the wall.

Our Pastor

2 Chronicles 29:31a

Come near, bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the Lord. The assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings; and all who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

We herald the coming of fall –beautiful, colorful and cool fall –well, not quite here in Florida! In spite of it all though, our hearts do beat a bit quicker than during the hot lull of summer. We look forward with expectation to the coming holidays, ball games, family gatherings, different church activities and a host of other things that come in the fall. It is a rich time of year for those surrounded by friends and family. We must remember, however, that it can be a difficult time for those who are alone or depressed or oppressed. It can be a time of unimaginable sorrow for those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. It can be a time of horrible want for those who are hungry! As you begin to contemplate your pledging for 2018 and as you contemplate any extra giving you are willing and able to do for 2017, let us all remember those in need. May we have the mind and heart of Christ now and throughout the year. May our giving reflect the love of our generous and faithful God!

My personal thanks and gratitude again go out to so many of you. This past Monday, Ted's 53-year-old son began feeling bad, went to the Emergency Room in Brooksville where his heart stopped. He was "shocked" and then, during a heart cath procedure was given stents to open blockages in his arteries. This is a man who works out 4-5 days a week and appears the epitome of good health. We give thanks to God that his distress didn't finally manifest itself until he was in the Emergency Room. Thank you for your caring and your prayers.

We will attend grandchild wedding #3 this coming week in Flat Rock, North Carolina. This is the third out of four grandchildren marrying in the same six-month period. We are blessed with a great abundance of love! We covet your prayers during this time of travel. David Baker will "fill in" on Sunday, October 22. He is indeed a blessing to our congregation!

May God bless you and yours as we march toward Advent and continue our journey through Paul's letter to the Philippians. I pray this exercise has been a blessing to you and a time of greater understanding and appreciation of this epistle of joy. May it be a good prelude to a very special time of Advent and Christmas! God's blessings to each of you!

In Christ's Service,

Celie
