Catch the Wave

at Bayshore Presbyterian

We have now completed our six weeks video study of The Apostles Creed through videos presented by Adam Hamilton. Through the study of this historic statement of foundational Christian faith, I pray you found some powerful answers to questions you may have had regarding your faith.

I trust that the following prayer sums up what we have taken a look at and I am hopeful that it is a prayer you will often reflect on and/or pray in the months to come.

O God, I trust that you exist and that the wonders of our universe are all your handiwork. Thank you for creating this planet on which we live with its capacity to sustain life. Thank you for creating human beings in your image and for making it possible for us to understand and acknowledge you as our Creator. Thank you for caring about us and for us.

Jesus Christ, thank you for the truth you came to reveal, the life you came to give us, the death you suffered for us, and for the resurrection by which you conquered evil, hate, sin, and death. I trust you as my Savior. Help me to follow you daily as my Lord.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill my heart. Form me and shape me as a potter shapes the clay. Transform my heart, sanctify me, and make me the person you intend me to be. Help me to love and to bear your fruit in my life.

Thank you, O God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. All that I am, I offer to you. Help me to live the words of the Creed and to incorporate their meaning into my daily life.

In Jesus' name.

Amen.

We are now entering into the blessed time of Holy Week. Our Palm Sunday is always deeply meaningful in that we open the service in the traditional manner with shouts of Hosanna! But we end the service in spiritual darkness as we strip the church of its elements signifying our participation in the emptiness and darkness of our Lord at this particular time in Holy Week. I pray each of you will be with this on this very special Sunday!

John Debevois of Palma Ceia Presbyterian Church has invited all of you to join with them in their Maundy Thursday service at noon and their Good Friday service at Noon. Ted and I hope to come from Lakeland at least one of those days and avail ourselves of John's gracious invitation. I hope you are able to do likewise!

May God bless you all as we journey during this most meaningful time of the church year.

In Christ's Love,

Pastor Celie

His Love

God sent His Son to take the punishment
For all the thoughtless, sinful things we do;
Jesus gave his life because He loves us;
His love is boundless, sweet, forever true.
On Easter morn He showed He is our Savior;
His resurrection proves He is our Lord.
That is why we tell you,
"Happy Easter!"
He secured our heavenly reward!
