August 2019

August

Lazy summer afternoons,
Walks along the beach,
Balmy evenings, cloudless skies,
Stars just out of reach,
Sailing on a quiet lake,
Hammocks in the shade...
These are the simple treasures
Of which August days are made.

Enjoy Your Summer!

A time for vacation
and rest!

*There remains then a Sabbath rest, for the people of God;
Hebrews 4:9*

As I am writing this, Ted and I are leaving tomorrow (Wednesday, July 31) and driving to Savannah to spend the night with my daughter, Carolyn. Then on Thursday we will go from Savannah to Charlotte for the wedding of Ted's granddaughter, Breeann. We are excited about seeing all of Ted's family in once place and sharing the joy over this marriage. It's one of life's high points. I think all of us rarely recall the days, weeks, months and even years of our lives, but we do remember various family occasions and traditions! While, we cherish this upcoming short trip, we will miss being with you on Sunday, August 4.

By the time you read this, I pray most of you were able to attend service on the 4th and enjoyed the opportunity to meet and hear from Reverend Ken Hubbell who will take my place in the pulpit that day. Ken obtained his Masters of Divinity degree from Asbury Theological Seminary and received a degree in Theology from Whitworth University in Spokane, Washington. He serves as youth director at Palma Ceia Presbyterian. Ken and his wife, McKay, live in Tampa. I am sure he will be a breath of fresh air!

We will also be gone two Sundays in September, the 15th and 22nd. That's the longest we have ever been away from home. I think we both have some apprehension about it! I have never been on a cruise and we are going to cruise from Quebec City to New York. The folks at Palma Ceia have graciously and generously volunteered to fill the pulpit on those two Sundays.

The Reverend Nicole P. Abdnour will be at Bayshore on September 15. Reverend Abdnour is Associate Pastor at Palma Ceia having graduated from Stetson University and earning her Master of Divinity degree from Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, Virginia. Nicole and her husband Christopher have three children: Malachi, Maliyah and Nevaeh. I am hopeful that her family will accompany Nicole to services here!

Finally, on September 22, the Senior Pastor at Palma Ceia, John DeBevoise will be here at Bayshore. He has held that position since 1995, having previously served churches in Roanoke, Virginia and Gastonia, North Carolina. He is a graduate of Eckerd College and received his Masters of Theology and Doctorate of Ministry from Union Presbyterian Seminary. John grew up in Orlando where his father was a Presbyterian minister and where his brother and sister-in-law currently serve as Presbyterian pastors. John and his wife Emalee have three grown children and an increasing number of grandchildren.

As you can see, you will be well-covered during these absences. I am grateful to the Personnel Committee and the Session of Bayshore who have allowed me to be absent six Sundays each year. Ted and I will miss you, however. Stay safe and be good to each other!

Much love to all,

Pastor Celie
